

BANNACK DAYS 2017

I. GENERAL POLICIES-ALL PARTICIPANTS

Bannack Days is a time of celebration and fun. “SMILE & BE HAPPY! Remember that, try as we might to have everything accounted for and planned for a smooth operation, this event takes place at the whims of mother nature, the well-meaning efforts of dozens of volunteers and an unpredictable number of visitors. Be patient, helpful and forgiving.” Also, the intent of Bannack Days is to re-create an authentic, Montana Frontier atmosphere, and allow visitors the opportunity to “step back in time and experience history where it actually happened.” We strive to maintain a high quality, family oriented, educational, non-commercial atmosphere. It is not intended to be a fundraiser for the park, and all sales are limited to items that are part of a frontier craft demonstration. There are limited funds available to pay for services or reimburse volunteers for their expenses. All Bannack Days expenses deplete the general Bannack budget, and therefore limit work that can be done.

1. PARTICIPANTS:

- Participation in Bannack Days is limited to pre-approved individuals and groups. We strive to provide a well-rounded mix of skills, talents and demonstrations.
- In order to accommodate all participants, group size is limited to 10 people.
